

BA – Economics

A four-year program leading to the bachelor of arts degree

ASCI4799	College of Arts & Sciences Internship *	4.5
ECON1001	Macroeconomics	4.5
ECON1002	Microeconomics	4.5
ECON2011	Intermediate Macroeconomics	4.5
ECON2022	Intermediate Microeconomics	4.5
ECON3070	Contemporary Economic Issues	4.5
ECON3200	Econometrics	4.5
ECON4900	Economics Capstone Seminar	4.5
Credits
Major Electives **
Choose seven of the following courses (at least one MATH-designated and two ECON-designated courses):		31.5
ACCT1210	Financial Accounting
ACCT1220	Managerial Accounting
ECON3025	The Global Economy in the 21st Century
ENTR1001	Introduction to Entrepreneurship
ENTR2030	Pitching & Planning New Ventures
ENTR4010	Change and Innovation Management
FISV2000	Finance
FISV2012	Introduction to Financial Institutions
ILS2325	Economics of Sin ***
MATH2002	Statistics II
PSCI1001	Introduction to Political Science
Related Professional Studies
LAW2001	The Legal Environment of Business I	4.5
RSCH2050	Workshop in Acquiring Social Research Skills	4.5
A&S Core Experience
Communications Foundation Courses		13.5
ENG1020	English Composition

ENG1021	Advanced Composition and Communication
ENG1030	Communication Skills
Integrative Learning		9
Two ILS courses, one at the 2000 level, and one at the 4000 level
Arts and Humanities		9
PHIL3240	Ethics: A Global Perspective
One course from ART, HIST, HUM‡, LIT or REL
Mathematics		9
MATH1035	Quantitative Analysis I
MATH2001	Statistics
Science		4.5
One course from BIO [^] , CHM [±] , PHY [°] or SCI
Social Sciences		9
PSYC1001	Introductory Psychology
One course from ECON, LEAD, PSCI or SOC
A&S Electives		9
Two courses with an EASC attribute, at least one at the 3000 level or higher.
Free Electives #
40.5 credits selected from 1000-4999 numbered offerings within the university.		40.5
Total Credits		180.0

*If a student takes an ILS course to count as a major elective, they must take a second ILS2000 level course to fulfill the requirements of the A&S Core Experience.